devout and capable Swami who may be trusted to have exercised great care in selecting his successor.

Sri Puttige matt with its Head-quarters at Udipi in the South Canara District is one of the 8 matts established by Sri Madhwacharya, founder of the Vaishnava Religion. There is a Branch matt at Tirthahalli which is endowed with a cash Jagir of Rs 103-10-0 per annum in addition to extensive inam lands in the Tirthahalli Taluk.

Pages 170-72 of the List of Muz. misc. dismd with inam Lands).

The present Swami is 62 years old and on account of failing health, has arranged to nominate Sriman Gopalakrishnachar — a Brahmachari — (in accordance with the manual obtaining in Udipi Matts) as his ~~future~~ successor and requests sanction of Govt in conformity with the Standing order (No. 233-42/Muz.7.102-92 Dy 14-12-1892). On an examination of the horoscopes & palmistry of 10 ~~boys~~ Brahmacharis, the Swami finds that Sriman Gopalakrishnachar possesses the qualifications requisite for a yati. The Brahmachari also happens to be the Swami's brother's third son.

The Dy. Comr reports that the Swamigalu is a very devout and capable Swami who may be trusted to have exercised great care in selecting his successor.

This is the first instance in which the Swami of Udipi Matt seeks previous Sanction of Govt to nominate his successor.

Submitted for orders as the installation ceremonies 3-7-18 have been fixed & are to take place on the 15th instant, Enquiries are solicited.

3-7-18

3-7-18 The Candidate is 14 years old, a Brahmachari, who, it is hoped by the Swami, according to the advice of astrologers and palmists, will turn out to be a suitable person to succeed to the Matt. The educational attainments are not mentioned. The boy is the nephew of the Swami. — The Dy Comr trusts to the discretion exercised &

The matt is a minor one with its principal head-quarters outside the State and this seems to be the first occasion when the approval of Govt has been sought for. A recognition however has been given to the States other matt which has been granted a claim for the first days Govt. Rikshaw Rs 50 on its visit to Bangalore

As regards the candidate nothing definite is known as to his qualifications excepting that he is a boy of 14 years and a nephew of the Swami. Apparently therefore the boy is of good extraction and young enough to learn and he have proposed to leave the matter at that. The Dt Commnr does not give any additional information and there is not time enough to institute independent enquiries Nomination has the approval of the Math disciples. Under the circumstances the nomination of the Swami may be accepted and the approval communicated to the Swami by a Vij. Patrika.

As the matter is a unanimous one it does not seem necessary to issue a formal order of Govt. in that effect.
